

Clear communication between the patient and the medical personnel is vital for successful treatment. The doctors and the majority of the nursing staff of the hospital speak fluent English.

Please inform us if you would like the additional services of an interpreter.