

The staff at International Patient Services is dedicated to attending to the needs of international patients. We serve embassies, consulates, foreign governments, insurers, and individual patients around the world. It is important to us to make each patient's stay at the Thoraxklinik Heidelberg as effective as possible. Please contact International Patient Services if you have questions, requests or suggestions.